However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the instructions for Part I, later. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN, later.

Note: If the account is in more than one name, see the instructions for line 1. Also see What Name and Number To Give the Requester for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Future developments. For the latest information about developments related to Form W-9 and its instructions, such as legislation enacted after they were published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW9.

Purpose of Form

An individual or entity (Form W-9 requester) who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) which may be your social security number (SSN), individual taxpayer identification number (ITIN), adoption taxpayer identification number (ATIN), or employer identification number (EIN), to report on an information return the amount paid to you, or other amount reportable on an information return. Examples of information returns include, but are not limited to, the following.

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)

- Form 1099-DIV (dividends, including those from stocks or mutual funds)
- Form 1099-MISC (various types of income, prizes, awards, or gross proceeds)
- Form 1099-B (stock or mutual fund sales and certain other transactions by brokers)
- Form 1099-S (proceeds from real estate transactions)
- Form 1099-K (merchant card and third party network transactions)
- Form 1098 (home mortgage interest), 1098-E (student loan interest), 1098-T (tuition)
- Form 1099-C (canceled debt)
- Form 1099-A (acquisition or abandonment of secured property)

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN.

If you do not return Form W-9 to the requester with a TIN, you might be subject to backup withholding. See What is backup withholding, later.

Shipping & Storage

The following are the rates and guidelines for packages and materials that are routed through the Shipping and Receiving Departments of the Crowne Plaza Louisville Airport.

- $4.00 per item (minimum) – normal delivery (70 pounds)
- $75.00 per skid/crate – normal delivery (250 pounds)
- $10.00 per box over 75 pounds and less than 100 pounds
- Additional charges will be incurred for oversize/overweight packages.
- $75.00 per skid/crate minimum – weighted freight (250 pounds)
- $100.00 per crate – for each 250 pounds (max. 500 lbs)

There is not a raised loading dock at the Crowne Plaza Louisville Airport. All skids or oversized/overweight deliveries must be made on vehicles with lift-gates.

Provisions must be made for off-loading of any crate that is in excess of 500 pounds by calling the hotel Catering Manager at least two weeks prior to delivery to arrange for rental of a forklift at an additional charge, dependent on the size of the crate.

Normal delivery consists of any standard package delivery through normal carriers such as Federal Express, UPS, Airborne Express, etc. When normal delivery arrives on a skid or crate, the rate, which benefits the guests, will apply. For example: A skid with 15 small/medium boxes delivered to the Shipping & Receiving Department would incur charges of $4.00 per box to total $60.00, instead of the $75.00 charge.

Freightliner deliveries consist of those deliveries made by freight/storage companies that handle large, oversize shipments not normally handled by your normal package carriers. Standard charge is $75.00 per skid (based on 4x4x4 size). Any delivery in excess of this standard size or in excess of the weight limit of 250 pounds will be charged $100.00 per 250 pounds.

The Crowne Plaza Louisville Airport does not unload any oversize/overweight packages.

A storage rate will be charged to all guests that have packages stored on the hotel property for more than 7 days. Any item stored in excess of 14 days shall be disposed of. Letters and small boxes (8" x 8" x 2") will be delivered to the Front Desk at no charge.

All packages/freight must be addressed to:

Company contact person
Name of the conference or meeting
Date of the conference or meeting
Crowne Plaza Louisville Airport
830 Phillips Lane
Louisville, KY 40209-1387

Do not put any Hotel employee's name on the package.
