Subject: 2023 K.T.O.A. Basic S.W.A.T. Officers Course Class #17

Welcome and thanks for planning to attend the 2023 KTOA Basic SWAT Officers Course Class XVII being hosted at Norse Tactical Training Facility in Jeffersonville, IN. Attached you will find information reference the POPS testing requirements and the Basic Firearms Qualification. Be advised that you are required to pass these basic qualifications on Sunday and Monday, before starting the course.

Plan to arrive on Sunday- please check in at the Norse Tactical Shoothouse between 1200 and 1230 Eastern Standard Time. The course will start promptly at 1300 hrs on October 29 we will move from the Norse site directly to the PT location. Your initial uniform will be PT gear as we will move immediately to POPS testing.

Lodging will be at 143 Main Street, New Albany, Indiana 47150. Bring any bedding and toiletries that you will need for the two (2) weeks. Breakfast and lunch will be provided on site by Norse except both Sundays and Fridays.

You are highly encouraged to bring a cooler with ice and lots of water, sports drinks, and snacks.

If you have any further questions, feel free to contact me.

Thank you,
