- I. Purpose: Law enforcement experience has demonstrated that there are police service demands which require specialized units that are equipped and trained to successfully handle these demands. SWAT (Special Weapons and Tactics Team) and similar units such as ERT (Emergency Response Teams) and SRT (Specialized Response Teams) are such units. The mission of these highly trained and specially equipped units is to bring under control police incidents involving highly volatile situations including persons with weapons, barricaded and/or hostage incidents, suicidal calls, and high risk warrant service operations. These types of units are the most heavily armed within any police agency and demand deliberative decision-making and oversight. There is no requirement that any police agency have such a unit. When the agency does choose to develop and deploy such a unit, it must accept the responsibilities and demands required.
- II. Policy: It is the policy of this police agency that the demands of this community warrant the development and deployment of a specialized tactical unit (SWAT). The mission of this unit is to provide the agency with the increased police capability to effectively control and resolve highly volatile incidents. The specialized equipment and training of these units provide for greater safety of the subjects being confronted, police employees directly involved, and the community. The police agency will use these specialized units only in situations warranting the need for the enhanced weaponry and training.
- III. Procedure: The following shall be implemented for the assignment to and use of the specialized tactical team:
  - A. Selection process: Personnel selected to become members of the unit shall successfully complete a psychological screening process, medical examination and physically agility course. The agency will consider the candidate's performance evaluations and complaint history during this selection process. This same process shall be conducted annually for all personnel assigned to this specialized unit.

- B. Fitness: All members of swat teams must pass a physical agility course based off of operational fitness requirements. Members shall be required to pass this course at initial selection and on a yearly basis. Any member unable to pass the agility test will be placed on inactive status until such time they are able to pass the course or they leave the team.
- C. Negotiators: SWAT teams shall have trained hostage negotiators available for tactical situation requiring negotiations for example barricaded subjects and hostage situations. Teams should have their own departmental negotiators or written policies on which negotiators will be used for example FBI, Kentucky State Police or other police/sheriff's department negotiators in their area.
- D. Training requirement:
- a. Hourly Training Requirements
- i. Initial Certification - (80 hour initial SWAT training Course) Final appointment to a SWAT team will require successfully completing an 80 hour basic SWAT course that includes firearms , exterior and interior training.
  - ii. Monthly Team Training- (16 hours of training per month) all swat teams must train 16 hours per month and maintain a yearly schedule documenting the firearms and tactical issues to be covered.
    - (a) Sniper Training- (80 hour- initial certification) All snipers are required to successfully pass 80 hours of certified sniper training before deploying as a sniper. Snipers are at a minimum required to qualify quarterly separate from the mandated team training schedule.
- b. Firearms Training Requirements
- i. All SWAT team members must qualify before they are consider operational with their weapons. Initial qualifications and familiarization with weapons will be conducted during the initial 80 hour swat course for primary and secondary weapons.
  - ii. All SWAT Team members must qualify at a minimum quarterly.
  - iii. All SWAT firearm courses must be completed with a minimum passing score of 80%.
  - iv. Any team member who fails to complete any quarterly or bi-annual qualification may not deploy during SWAT activations.
  - v. SWAT weapons training is divided into two approaches: skill courses and combat/ tactical courses. Skill courses provide each officer the opportunity to practice skills and show proficiency by numerical score. Combat courses allow for practicing tactics and skills.
  - vi. All qualifications shall be conducted in full tactical call out gear.
  - vii. SWAT qualification courses should be specific to each weapons system utilized by each team and follow nationally accepted standards.

c. Specialty Munitions Training Requirements

SWAT members shall not deploy any special munitions to include Diversionary Devices, Less Lethal and Chemical Munitions without receiving proper instruction and certification on those munitions. Qualified training shall be conducted bi-annually on any specialized munitions.

F. Deployment-Utilization of SWAT/Tactical (Kentucky State Police Provision):

When officers are confronted with situations requiring the assistance of a SWAT team they shall notify a commanding officer who shall, where possible, respond to the scene. When the commanding officer responds to the scene and determines the necessity of use of a SWAT team for a barricaded subject or other tactical situation he shall notify the Kentucky State Police Post Commander and request the assistance of the KSP SWAT team. Commanding officers should gather all available information regarding the suspect and the location in order to brief the KSP on arrival.

G. Deployment-Utilization of KSP for Warrant Service: After completing a risk assessment form (required before all warrant service) and finding that the score requires use of a SWAT team, a commanding officer shall be advised. The commanding officer shall review the assessment and upon satisfaction that a SWAT team is necessary, shall notify the Kentucky State Police Post Commander for assistance and activation of the SWAT team.

H. Control of Incident: When the KSP arrive and take over the situation, all tactical and response decisions will become the responsibility of the KSP. The police department will assist the KSP with any needed/requested support.

I. Deployment limitations: This type of specialized unit is designed to operate as a team. When deployed, the team shall be at full complement. Individual members, however, may be used in other police field incidents to enhance the police operation by virtue of his/her specialized equipment. In any case where the use of an individual member is considered, the SWAT commander shall be notified for assessment and approval.

- J. Risk Assessment Matrix: Before the actual deployment of the specialized tactical unit, the agency shall evaluate the necessity for this deployment by using a risk assessment tool. This tool is a guide to evaluate the need to deploy the most heavily armed unit with the agency to ensure that it meets the risk potential of the incident.
- K. High Risk Warrants: A risk assessment matrix shall be completed prior to determination that a "high risk" exists.
- L. Operational planning: Before deployment of the specialized tactical unit, an operational planning session shall be conducted and must include:
  - a. A written operational plan identifying the mission given to the unit and the tasks assigned to each member.
  - b. A reading of the warrant or description of the events leading to the decision to deploy the specialized unit
  - c. Acknowledgment that current surveillance of the targeted location has been done.
  - d. Identification of the subjects believed to be present at the targeted location.
  - e. A description of the violence potential and any weaponry that may be present.
  - f. A schematic of the targeted location, if available, and any known tactical hazards.
  - g. The stationing of medical support, when necessary.
- M. Operational debriefing: The unit shall conduct and prepare a written critique of each operational deployment.
- N. Inter-jurisdictional support:
  - a. When the agency is requested to assist another jurisdiction by the deployment of the specialized tactical unit in a jurisdiction other than that policed by this agency, the operational aspects and decisions will be made by this agency's unit commander in consultation with the on-duty supervisor. The manner of operational deployment will conform to this agency's policy on the use of this specialized tactical unit.
  - b. When this agency requires the assistance of another jurisdiction's specialized tactical team for either assumption of the mission or deployment with this agency's tactical team, the policy of this agency shall be considered. It is still the decision of this agency's on duty commander to deploy any tactical unit within this agency's jurisdiction.
  - c. Requests for Mutual Aid will be governed by compliance with the Kentucky Mutual Aid requirements.
